À l'attention des Mmes Ginère et Pelletier,
Bonjour Mesdames,
Je vais écrire en anglais, c'est plus facile pour moi:

1. When i saw an employee of Cap Gemini installing digital meters in the neighborhood, i asked him whether he will also come to us because we refused the installation. He said no and added that - "anyway you will have a smart meter if you refuse, right letters or not - you have no choice; we will install them anyway"
2. i saw that he dumped the new meters in the snow before installing them - which i consider a dangerous behavior (high voltage and water).

i was shocked by the arrogance and un-professionalism of the installer
